Tuolumne County Arts is excited to present this year's Why Not? Picasso Inspired Small Works Show & Sale

"Others have seen what is and asked why. I have seen what could be and asked why not."--Pablo Picasso

We heard you! and YOU have chosen these categories for TCA's 2nd annual small works show: ANIMALS, BIRDS & FLOWERS...but there's a twist...(of course). Our inspiration artist is Picasso. (for more on this please visit our website, see above), or download our inspiration/information/links document, also on the website).

We also have a twist on this year's format for selling your work: it's an auction, but we have structured it so that nobody knows what the bid is. All bids must start at 50% of your asking price. BUT..if your admirers want the piece, they must bid your asking price. If they really MUST have it, they will offer MORE than your asking price.

This will be a juried show for quality and theme. Both 2D and 3D objects included. The show will be virtual and in-person.

To be fair and equitable to the artists in our community, we do not expect entries to be donated. You will have the opportunity to choose your commission rate on the application, up to 75% for TCA members and 65% for non-members. Artists who do choose to donate their work will not have to pay to enter and willget mention in all publicity we offer, as well as special recognition at our fundraiser.

Sales / Non-Sales:

All entries must be for sale at the:
Why Not? Picasso Inspired Small Works Sale & Auction.

The selling format for art will be a silent auction with a minimum starting bid. All bids will be anonymously placed in a box near the artwork. The bidders will know the Value Price and Minimum bid.

Youwill set the Value Price of your piece. The minimum bid will be 50% of your Value Price. (example: Your Value Price is $300. Minimum starting price will be $150. If there is at least one bid in the box you have at least gotten a bid for $150. You would take home either $112.50 ((75%)) or $97.50 ((65%)) depending on your TCA membership status.) So carefully choose your price!

Bidding: New bidders will not know what the current highest bid is. Bidders will be encouraged to submit their "best price" if they want to take the artwork home. We see this as a way for the price to go up and above the minimum price.

The commission (up to 75% or 65%) will be based on the final sale price and will be paid to the Artist by check by Nov 20th. Please be sure to give us your correct contact information.

Work that doesn't sell: some works may not sell because the valued price and the minimum starting price is thought to be too high. In the event that your work(s) did not sell and you would like to have it back, you will be contacted by Nov 16th. Anything not sold can be scheduled for pick up between Nov 17th and Nov 24th. If you need to arrange a pickup date outside of the window please email us at info@tuolumnecountyarts.org, . If you do not pick up your work between the above dates and do not give TCA notice of such, it will become the property of TCA to display, sell, or give away at the organization's convenience!
